

English

- Can you make a new title which also has alliteration e.g. Eleanor's Eyebrows, Marvellous Magician.
- Write a story based on one of these titles?
- Can you make a list of all the words that describe eyebrows in the story?
- Can you think of five other things that could be used as eyebrows?
- Write a set of instructions of how to make a face mask.
- Make a face mask of Eleanor and her eyebrows.
- Design a poster about your five senses.
- Write a poem about your senses.
- Make a face or body parts word mat

Maths

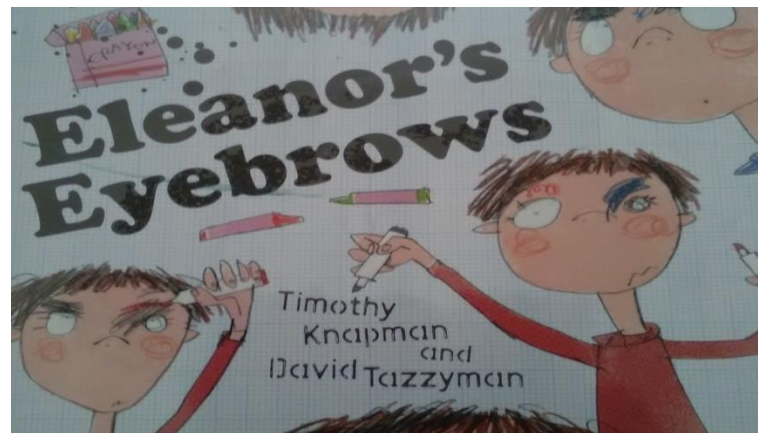

- Count your body parts, are they odd or even.
- Measure your bedroom using your feet.
- Can you use a tape measure or a ruler to measure yourself?
- Plan a journey to take you to the zoo, museum, farm etc.
- Make number cards to count in 5s and 10s.
- Can you make a list in numerical order of body parts e.g. 1 belly button, 2 thumbs etc
- Count how many times eyebrows is used on each page
- Count how many times eye brows is used in the book.

Phonics

- Find word beginning with 'Ee' or any other letter.
- Play an alliteration game with body parts
- Find your favourite book.

PSHE

- Make a list of your 10 favourite books to go into a new library.
- Talk about what's good about a library?
- Tidy up your toys
- Play hide and seek with toys.
- Wash your hands and face properly.

ICT

- Take a picture of your face and see if you can change your appearance.
- Design a powerpoint about you and your family.
- Make a poster about your five senses.
- Find pictures of different eyebrows

Art

- Make a face mask for Eleanor.
- Make a Model from playdough, bits of recycling.
- Draw your own face, make sure you include all the parts - eyes, nose, mouth, eyebrows, eye lashes, ears
- Draw a picture of Eleanor with different eye brows

Food Tech

- Make some round biscuits and decorate with different faces.

Science

- Make a body map and label it.
- Design a poster showing what we need to keep us healthy.
- Find out what eyebrows are actually for
- Are there any other strange body parts that you do not know what they are for? Eye lashes, Appendix